WARRICK COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Ordinance No. 2001- 18

BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of County Commissioners of Warrick County, Indiana, as follows:

WHEREAS, I.C. 36-2-2-4(E)(1) mandates that the County Executive shall, by ordinance, divide the County into three (3) contiguous County Commissioner Districts in the year 2001; and

WHEREAS, I.C. 36-2-3-4(E)(1) mandates that the County Executive shall, by Ordinance, divide the County into four (4) contiguous, single-member County Council Districts in the year 2001; and

WHEREAS, the statute requires that each District be compact, subject only to natural boundary lines, not cross precinct boundary lines, contain, as nearly as possible, equal population, and include whole Townships, except when a division is clearly necessary to accomplish redistricting under this Section; and

WHEREAS, by order of November 21, 2001, the Commissioners of Warrick County have adopted an "Order Adding and Changing of Voter Precincts" whereby additional precincts in Ohio and Boon Townships have been added; and

WHEREAS, given the addition of the new precincts, the County Commissioners have taken into account the statutory requirements set forth above in preparing the following District boundaries for the County Commissioner Districts and County Council Districts.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Commissioners of Warrick County, Indiana, as follows:

Section 1: The Districts for the County Commissioners shall be as follows:

- (A) The First District shall be all of Anderson and Ohio Townships.
- (B) The Second District shall be all of Campbell, Boon and Greer Townships.
- (C) The Third District shall be all of Hart, Lane, Owen, Pigeon and Skelton Townships.
